Salmon fishing comeback on Lake George

By Gordon Woodworth
Chronicle News Editor

"Salmon fishing on Lake George is definitely on the upswing," says Joe Greco, owner of Justy-Joe Charters.

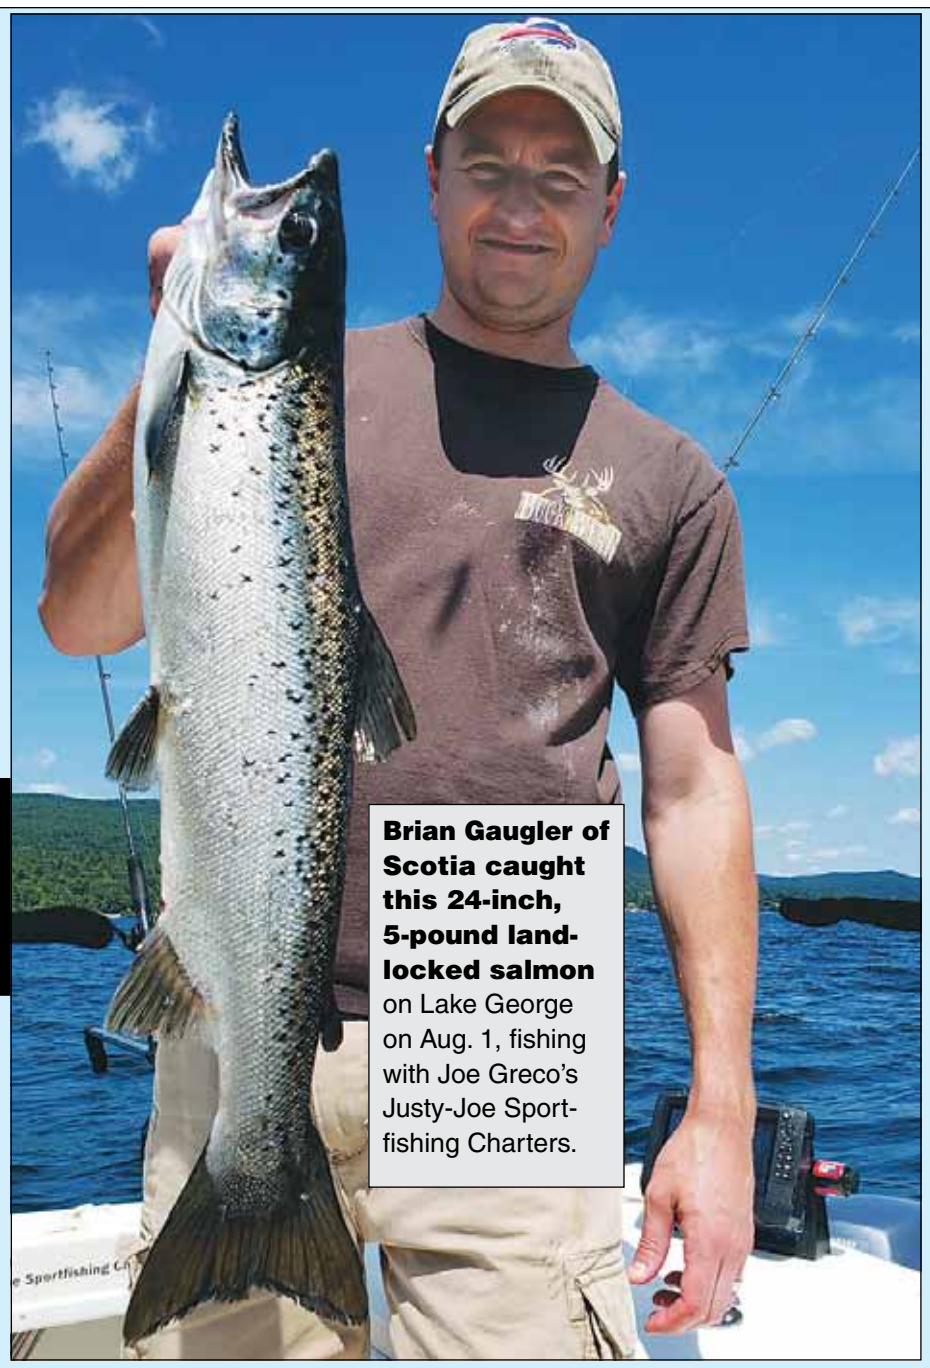

Anglers, DEC credit hardier strain of stocked fish

"Last year was an exceptionally good year for numbers and size, and this year is even better. I started fishing on the lake in 1991 and in the mid- to late-1990s, we were catching 400 salmon a year.

"We're not catching those numbers this year, but it seems like we're catching bigger fish, healthier fish, and the ratio of keepers to total fish is higher."

Writes: 'Why I'll support Trump in next election'

To the Editor:

Carl Tucker's letter "Trump is right on policy" is itself right on target. Mr. Tucker expresses in words better than I ever could, the reason I'll be supporting President Trump in the next election. I belong to that group of people who sometimes wish Mr. Trump would just keep his mouth shut. On the other hand his policy of communicating directly to the people via Twitter and other social media seems to have worked well for him.

Maybe all Trump supporters aren't deplorable after all...

Trump 'despicable' but seeks common ground with defender

To the Editor:

I was interested to read Carl Tucker's letter of 8 August ["Says Mark misses point; Trump is right on policy"] because it was a reasoned set of arguments for his position voting for Trump.

It was not replete with one-liners memorized from Fox News and nor did it have many usual inaccurate representations of the opposing view of which so many conservative voices are guilty.

I am writing to speak in the opposing view to Mr. Tucker because I would like him and people like him to (1) reconsider the idea that character can be discounted and (2) consider the
