White-face opened; our Ben skied it!

By Ben Westcott
Chronicle Staff Writer

As we floated up toward the peak of the mountain famed for having the greatest vertical drop east of the Rockies Saturday, the man sitting next to me on the chairlift seemed surprised when I told him I only started skiing toward the end of last season.

"Wow, and you're already skiing from the top of Whiteface!" he said.

I laughed and assured him that it wasn't that impressive, that I go slow. I'm sure my form is anything but pretty, but I'm finding a way to meander down the mountain.

I got a bunch of runs in and only fell once, knocking loose

Glens Falls football rolling!

By Ben Westcott
Chronicle Staff Writer

Glens Falls won its second consecutive Section II football title Saturday, routing Averill Park 47-7 at Shenendehowa High School. The Black Bears (11-0) move onto the state quarterfinals, vs. Ogdensburg Free Academy at Colonie High School Saturday, Nov. 22, at noon.

Beat Averill Park 47-7; 11-0 Black Bears in NYS quarter finals

Semifinals would be at Middletown High School Nov. 29 at 3 p.m., with the state title game at the JMA Wireless Dome in Syracuse Dec. 6 at 3 p.m.

It's been a season of utter dominance for Glens Falls. The Black Bears have won every game by 19 points or more.

"I think a lot of people outside of our program thought we would be down a little," Head

Faults Stefanik, Hochul, but it's '2-woman race'

To: Mark Frost
Subject: Can Stefanik win?

Can Congresswoman Stefanik win in her bid for Governor? Well, she opened her campaign spewing disinformation, hate, and divisiveness.

Governor Hochul countered with disinformation, hate, and
