49th South High Marathon Dance raised $735,231.64

By Ben Westcott
Chronicle Staff Writer

The 49th annual South High Marathon Dance this weekend raised $735,231.64 for 36 recipients — 21 individuals in need and 15 organizations. 527 South High students danced.

"It's a huge mix of emotions," senior chair Parker Simon told The Chronicle right after the Dance. "Inside I feel so much right now. It's great to know how much we just helped all those people."

Senior chair Lucy Pliscofsky, her voice raspy and barely audible from hours of screaming, said, "I'm overwhelmed with emotions. We have put so much into this dance. We put our entire hearts into it." She said, It "went amazing," adding, "It's always interesting with new freshman classes to see how engaged they are. But the freshmen brought the energy."

Junior chair Eric Miller said, "Everyone had a great time. It was electric and exciting. There was never a dull moment." He'll be back to dance next year, but he's conscious of the seniors. "All of my friends I've grown up with my entire life, this was their last Marathon," he said.

The recipients expressed huge gratitude to the dancers, in both a video tribute and in-person during the closing ceremony. "I don't know if I'll ever be able to repay you," one recipient said, vowing "I will pay

AOC & Rep. Ryan pack the Wood

By Zander Frost
Chronicle Chief Operating Officer

Democrat Representatives Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez of the Bronx and Pat Ryan of Kingston conducted a quietly promoted "town hall" Sunday evening at the Wood Theater in downtown Glens Falls.

Congress members Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez of the Bronx & Pat Ryan of Kingston draw 400+ enthused in Glens Falls.

Posted online as "RSVP only," the location was revealed after guests signed up. The Chronicle learned of the event Saturday by chance. We signed up but did not receive an email. We gleaned the location from a subsequent media release.

The 299-seat theater was packed, with more people in an
